

CONCERNED someone you know may be in a relationship and is at risk of domestic violence/abuse?

Through the Domestic Violence Disclosure Scheme there is now a way you can make enquiries with the Police.

Should you wish to make an application call Lincolnshire Police on 101 or visit your local police station. You can also ask the police for information about domestic violence/abuse support services available in the area.

Find out more at <https://www.lincs.police.uk/reporting-advice/domestic-abuse/>

